DRIVE THE NT

Some of Australia's most exciting road trips are in the Northern Territory. A place where you can experience ancient Aboriginal art and culture, learn about our pioneering and military history, meet our local wildlife and explore our World Heritage-listed icons.

Journey to a part of the country where blue skies and breathtaking landscapes make driving a dream. From the red desert sands of Uluru to the tropical terrain of Kakadu National Park and the sparkling waters around Darwin. The Northern Territory truly is different in every sense.

Drive down the remote tracks of the Red Centre and experience the iconic landscapes and larger than life characters of the Australian Outback. And what better destination to have than the world famous natural wonders of Uluru?

The Red Centre Way is one of the Australian Outback's great drives, stretching from Alice Springs to Uluru and taking in the stunning landscapes of Kings Canyon and Ormiston Gorge. Aboriginal culture and pioneering history populate this drive peppered with historic towns and sacred indigenous sites and rock art, not to mention an abundance of nature and wildlife.
